Chapter 3 by Sci-Fi Pie

As everybody knows, Aristide is the most badass croissant assassin that the world has ever seen. So, he was given the task of planting the bomb. He sneaked into the doughnut factory. But he got overwhelmed. There were dozens and dozens of armed doughnuts guarding the facility. Sadly, Aristide got killed in combat.

The next day, the Board of Crossaints held a very important meeting where they discussed what they should do next. They decided that they would ask other pastries for help.
